

My Lovely Computer 1/2

[verse 1:]

D
My name is Bob R Higgins
G                    D
my color a Dark Red,
A                    G
whenever I step on Orange
A                    D
someone shoots me in my head

[verse 2:]

D
I've got five 'little clone friends,
G                    D
they'll replace me when I die,
A                    G
which might be every second now -
A                    D
oh madam don't you cry!

[verse 3:]

D
I'm quite the troubleshooter,
G                    D
and troubles never end,
A                    G
because the world is treacherous,
A                    D
good thing I've got a friend,
A
got a friend,
got a friend.

[chorus]

G            D
My lovely computer
A                    D
you're filling me with joy,
C                    G
we're feeling so much better
since we're eating this green soy!

G            D
My lovely computer,
A                    D
your reign shall never end,
G                    em
and even if you'll kill me
A                    D
you'll do it as a friend.

My Lovely Computer 2/2

[verse 4:]

D
I'm surely not a mutant,
G D
only traitors tell such lies,
A G
i'm just a common human,
A D
with forty seven eyes.

[verse 5:]

D
My loyalty can't be questioned,
G D
I only serve my friend,
A G
we're not a secret society,
A D
we're just a Country band!

My favorite thing is trucking,
G D
I'll haul from end to end
A G
these anvils in a wheelbarrow -
A D issued by my friend
A
by my friend,
by my friend.

[chorus:]

G D
My lovely computer
A D
you're filling me with joy,
C G
we're feeling so much better
since we're eating this green soy!

G D
My lovely computer,
A D
your reign shall never end,
G em
and even if you'll kill me
A D
you'll always be my friend.
